

Please answer these questions as honestly as possible. Please check the box that indicates your level of agreement for each statement.	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neither Disagree nor Agree	Agree	Strongly Agree
I think taking math classes in school is a good thing.
People think that women scientists are geeky.
If my school had a science club, I would join it.
If I did not have to take math classes in high school, I would not take them at all.
I think girls who like math and science are cool.
I think I will major in math or science in college.
If a woman becomes a scientist she would have a hard time having a family too.
I have never thought about majoring in science before.
I will not take math classes beyond those required.
My parents make me take science classes.
I can talk to my friends about my interest in science.
I participate in math or science clubs after school.
I can get good grades in math classes.
I can't talk to my friends about liking math classes in school.
I would feel good about myself if I majored in science in college.
Students who study science in college have a harder time than those that study other things.
I can choose to be whatever I want to be as a career.
My friends would think it was cool to belong to a science club.
My friends think its cool to take science classes.
There are some things beyond your control that may keep you from being what you want to be in life.
My friends wouldn't understand if I took extra math and science classes.
Taking science classes in school is a bad idea.
I want to come to Women in Science Event next year.
My parents would be proud of me if I majored in science in college.
I intend to participate in after school activities that would help me to major in science in college.
Once I meet the requirements, I won't take any extra science classes.
I would not take science classes in high school unless my parents or my school made me.
My brother, sisters, or cousins wouldn't understand if I wanted to major in science in college.
I think majoring in science in college would be fun.
Only losers like taking science classes.
I am good at science.
I plan on taking science classes every year in high school.
I cannot get good grades in science classes.
I get to choose what science classes I will take.
The major I am considering in college does not require science.
My choices in school will decide my career choices when I graduate.
I am bad at math.
A person can be popular in school and take science classes.

It is okay to put my answers with everyone else's answers for research.  Yes  No