(D) SYNERGISTIC ACTIVITIES

- Founding director of the Center for Research Program Development and Enrichment (CRPDE) at the University of Oklahoma. CRPDE staff assist in the development of strong and competitive programs for research, scholarship and creative activities across the University of Oklahoma by supporting faculty and students in these efforts, identifying and building resources, facilitating new partnerships, and developing teams to pursue strategic initiatives.

- Founding member, Collaborative Working Group Co-Chair, and past board member of the National Organization of Research Development Professionals (NORDP). NORDP is organized to develop and operate programs to facilitate research excellence and enable interdisciplinary research and collaborative partnerships designed to reduce the administrative and institutional barriers affecting scientific and scholarly research projects at non-profit research institutions nationwide. A new NORDP activity includes an effort to connect and network NORDP members from EPSCoR jurisdictions.
- Participated in and expanded the Graduate Grant Writing Workshop Series at Penn State and recently developed and implemented a similar series of workshops at the University of Oklahoma.
